TPA expands its Legal Services in partnership with Savov & Partners Law Firm

Sofia – The international tax advisory, accounting and audit company TPA has formed a partnership with the law office “Savov & Partners” in Sofia (Bulgaria). With Valentin Savov and his team TPA will position itself as a leading tax and law firm in Bulgaria.

The renowned Bulgarian lawyer Valentin Savov has been working with great success for more than 15 years for leading legal firms in Bulgaria, Japan and the Netherlands. He has been the Managing Director of “Savov & Partners” since 2016. With his many years of experience, he will from now on play an important part in the TPA Team as a Partner in Bulgaria, and in this role he will strengthen the Legal Services business division. Furthermore, Valentin Savov is a “Highly regarded Tax Controversy Leader in Bulgaria”, according to “WTR – World Tax Review”. Since 2019 he is a Member of the International Fiscal Association Executive Committee.

Thomas Haneder, TPA Partner and Member of the Management Team, said: “This partnership is a milestone for us. With Valentin Savov we gained a like-minded renowned top expert who is well-known in Bulgaria. It is a clear signal that our strong focus lies on high quality services. Having Valentin on board means that we strengthen our forces in Tax and Legal. Together we build great futures for our clients.

Valentin Savov, S&P Partner, said: “We are very excited to join forces and expertise with such a reputable company as TPA. I am certain that our synergies will create great value and benefit to our clients.”

TPA has been represented with great success since 2008 in Bulgaria and has managed to steadily expand its services. In addition to Bulgaria, the TPA Group is – with approximately 1,700 employees – active in 11 further countries in Central and South Eastern Europe: Austria, Albania, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, and Slovenia.
